Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Dare you step onto the battle ground between trust and lust? Part comic confession, part one-woman Lysistrata, Lily asks impossible questions: Is chastity the only option for women of a certain age? Could a sex strike end war? Is intimacy dangerous? Do Hags have more fun? Funny, provoking and always accessible, these poems takes you on a journey where the goddess Diana is resurrected as an older woman, where Hindu Goddesses Durga and Kali battle a Buffalo-demon, whizzing past the Rakes of the 18th Century and into the dark and dirty corners of the 21st. A potted history of Hinduism my ma would approve of. Playful asking of questions through comedy. - Anil Kumar, Actor Enchanting, funny and poignant. Lily deals skillfully with women s issues which are not spoken about enough - Chastity Belt is edgy, charismatic, witty and thought provoking. - Linda Marlowe Audiences for the stage show version said: intelligent, provocative and very funny , a sharp eye and a dangerously wicked emotional truth , creative, original, and raunchy (in a very chaste way!) Press reviews for Lily s previous work: compelling, beautifully written - Edinburgh Evening News incisive and inventive wit - The Scotsman provokes and intrigues - Daily Post, Liverpool gripping from start to finish - BBC Radio Merseyside vividly written - Donald Hutera (dance/theatre critic for The Times).
