The Baldwin Locomotive Works of Philadelphia has built several engines expressly for the consumption of lignite coal, such as mined in the Dakotas, the results being satisfactory. PROVIDENCE, R. I. March 6, 1902. Trade conditions are little changed here since last week. Dealers are generally buying only from hand to mouth, as with the anticipated discounts after April 1 are allowing their stocks to run pretty low and are only replenishing for immediate needs. Soft coal demands are steady and prices fairly firm. The higher grades obtain premiums when available, and this is helping the cheaper coals very materially. The teamsters strike was settled last week by the dealers advancing their wages three dollars, making the weekly earnings of a driver of a one-horse truck $11 and those of a two-horse truck $12, to take effect April 1. This will cause an advance in the delivered price of coal at retail 25 cents a ton. Merwin White, of J. R. White Son, left Providence for Philadelphia in the interest of the firm's business. The strike among the weavers of the American Woolen Co. here is again threatening to spread to the other mills owned by the company unless the demands of the operators are met. The road...
