D: 1899 A Few of those who loved the man of whom this pamphlet speaks, have thought it good to honor his memory by preserving in this form some of the tributes called forth by his death. In the following pages will be found a brief biographical notice taken from the Springfield Republican, the prayer offered by Rev. A. B. Bassett at the services in the house, the addresses delivered in the village church by Dr. Bascom and President Carter, an account of a memorial service held in the White Oaks Chapel, the resolutions adopted by the Faculty of Williams College, by brother physicians, and by the Temple Club of White Oaks respectively, and an expression in verse of those qualities by which his friends are glad to remember him. We are indebted to the above friends, and also to Rev. Mr. Stryker, for their kindness in furnishing the materials for this memorial.
