

The Vienna Woods Killer: A Writer's Double Life

By Leake, John

Granta Books, UK, 2008. Softcover. Book Condition: New. First Edition. Available Now. Book Description: In 1991, four women disappeared from Vienna's red-light district, their bodies found later in the Vienna Woods. In the ensuing media frenzy, one reporter - the flamboyant writer and freelance journalist Jack Unterweger - distinguished himself for his hard-hitting interviews with the Chief of Police and Vienna's prostitutes. Despite months of investigation, the police failed to find a suspect. Then they considered a theory that at first seemed too far-fetched: the 'Vienna Woods Killer' was Jack Unterweger himself. But was he really the killer? The dapper writer was not only a literary celebrity, but also Austria's greatest example of criminal rehabilitation. Sixteen years earlier he had murdered a girl, but in prison had discovered literature and been remarkably transformed. His children's stories were read on national radio, and his acclaimed novel Purgatory was made into a film. The Austrian establishment campaigned for his freedom, and in 1990 he was released amid a blaze of publicity. In search of proof, Austrian and American investigators traced Jack's movements in Europe and Southern California, where women had been murdered in a similar way. Meanwhile, the lead investigator looked for clues...
