Excerpt: .had offered to receive eighty licenses as a full indemnity for our claims, I had hoped to have it in my power, by this opportunity, to enable you to refute the statement. Mr. Barlow s instructions, however, are not to be found in the Department, and his executors have not yet furnished the copies in their possession. Iam enabled now to inform you, however, that the offer, if made by Mr. Barlow, was not authorized by his instructions; and, when accidentally communicated to bis Government, was distinctly disavowed and disapproved by the President. If a suitable opportunity should offer, it will be well for you to give the necessary refutation of a statement which, if believed, might be injurious to our national pride and honor. Correspondence with France. 23d Coko. 2d Sess. I am, with great respect, yours, c. LOUIS McLANE. To Edwabd LiviieSToir, Esq.,...
