

Jamaican Houses: A Vanishing Legacy (Paperback)

By Geoffrey DeSola Pinto

Ian Randle Publishers, Jamaica, Jamaica, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Anghelen Arrington Phillips (illustrator). 3rd Revised edition. 287 x 211 mm. Language: N/A. Brand New Book. Jamaica is famous for its Georgian houses but many people are unaware of the vernacular architecture from which they evolved. Anghelen Phillips illustrates, in her distinctive and peculiar style, a wide and varied range of these buildings from all over the island. Geoffrey Pinto enhances the drawings with a brief history of these buildings, reviewing their current state and looking at the Architectural Heritage Movement in Jamaica in recent years. This third edition is an enduring contribution to the preservation of Jamaica's architectural heritage and to the foresight to those who conceived and executed it.

READ ONLINE
[5.12 MB]

Reviews

Great eBook and useful one. it was actually writtern really completely and useful. You are going to like the way the article writer publish this publication.

-- Prof. Ernestine Emard

Absolutely one of the best book I have ever study. It is actually writter in simple terms rather than confusing. I realized this pdf from my dad and i suggested this pdf to understand.

-- Garry Quigley