Girl meets God. This is the book that just may change the way you look at life. It was supposed to be Lexy Quinns year. The hard-working wallflower has finally landed the coveted spot as Editor of her schools newspaper. Then the rug is ripped out from under her when she finds out her mom is sick, and the family is moving half-way across the country to Preston Hills, Texas. Lexy cant think of a worse place to be than at a school full of snobby rich kids where shell have to start all over to get people to notice her writing, or--who is she kidding--notice her at all. When the most swoon-worthy boy in town, who also happens to be the jock celebrity quarterback, gives her an exclusive interview, Lexys life takes an unexpected turn. Ash Preston is the perfect guy and, even better, he sees Lexy as she wants to be seen. But can she trust him PRODIGAL is a different kind of love story, where faith, romance, and God...
