Heroine Publications, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. When Maura Knight, a disillusioned ex-reality television producer, turned waitress, accidentally captures an after hours attack on her video camera at the restaurant where she works, she promptly posts the video online and her life gets complicated. Suddenly Maura is catapulted into a life on the run from the powerful forces who are working their way down a short hit list that includes her name. With a small group that wants to fight back, Maura finds herself in the position of reluctant leader of an underground group of vigilante journalists who are working against the clock to expose the corruption that may take them all down, if their messy love triangles and Maura s need for redemption don t do them in first. Set in the gritty, downtown buildings and alleyways of behind-the-scenes Los Angeles, FEED, takes us on a journey to discover the dirty truth, through Maura s unflinching accounts of sex, lies, industry ties, love, lust and redemption.
