Outskirts Press, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Betsy and I (Eric) were taught that finding a need and filling it is a prerequisite for a meaningful productive life. Ours is a second marriage that entailed melding 3 2 children under the age of 10 into one family and maintaining a strong growing relationship for the two of us at the same time. The first goal has had its moments but the second has gained strength over the years. Thanks to friends who sent us (newly weds) to a weekend Marriage Encounter Seminar. As a result we became deeply involved: writing presentations, leading weekends, mentoring and training others to do the same. Gradually a worldly need became fixed in our minds. u2018There has to be a way to make this available to anyone. u2019 A way to learn the techniques for recognition, description, sharing and empathetic acceptance of feelings arising from the emotional needs inside all of us. But without the associated costs, arrangements and time commitments for attending a weekend seminar. Our attempts over time met numerous stonewalls especially when rocking the boat with professionals in the field. So becoming frustrated by criticism we started teaching a communication/relationship class as part of the Job and Life skills program called u2018Soup of Success u2019 run by Church Community Services here in Elkhart Indiana. It u2019s on! We used our personal outline and our years of experience with Encounter and a handout version is on hold at present Because u2026. Suddenly a whole new area of need became apparent to us. As we age, wear and tear can impact the human lifestyle. For us Betsy finally had both knees replaced and the day she was discharged...
